

Relive the Infamous 1884 Lazier Murder Trial in the Picton Courthouse

Justice Robert J. Sharpe (OCA) author of The Lazier Murder: Prince Edward County, 1884, will preside at the re-enactment in the courthouse where it all took place. Did they get the right men? You be the judge.

Take a tour of the gaol, gallows and courthouse grounds. Reception with County wine and hors d'oeuvres at the Waring House following the re-enactment. Special guests: Richard Gwyn, award winning historian and journalist and Ruth Abernethy, acclaimed bronze portrait artist.

Friday, July 11, 2014, 1:00 - 3:00
(reception to follow)

Historic 1834 Courthouse, Picton, Ontario
Tickets $125/person*

Available at: www.eventbrite.ca
or call Marilyn Warrick @ (613) 471-1238

Proceeds to support a bronze sculpture of John A. Macdonald presenting his first case as a young lawyer in Picton in 1834 in the very same courthouse.

*A charitable receipt will be issued for a portion of the ticket price.

Visit www.macdonaldproject.com